

As we improve the pay and benefits of men and women in uniform, we must also support their kids and the local schools they attend. Soldiers make great sacrifices for us overseas; the least we can do is make sure their families are well cared for back home. That is why I have reintroduced legislation to fully fund Impact Aid